

1. Territories (IRE)

Standing at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket and the winner of the Gr.1 Prix Jean Prat, Territories made a brilliant start to his stud career with the Gr.1 Prix de l'Opera Longines winner ROUGIR coming from his first crop. He has also sired the likes of the Group placed Masseto, Rhoscolyn, Teresa Mendoza and last year's Balmoral Handicap winner Aldaary. Territories' 2022 stud fee is £10,000.

More info here on the Darley website

2. Time Test (GB)

Standing at the National Stud, Time Test was a multiple Gr.2 winner and has made a brilliant start to his stud career, finishing 2021 as the leading first season sire by black type winners. His stakes performers to date include the Gr.1 placed Sunset Shiraz, Gr.3 winners ROMANTIC TIME and ROCCHIGIANI, and Listed winners TARDIS & THE KING'S HORSES. Time Test's 2022 stud fee is £15,000.

More info on the National Stud website

3. Profitable (IRE)

Standing at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Kildare and the winner of Royal Ascot's Gr.1 King's Stand Stakes, Profitable made a successful start to his stud career with 28 winners, putting him in the top three for first crop winners in Europe. His progeny are headed by the Royal Ascot Gr.2 Queen Mary Stakes winner QUICK SUZY as well as the Listed winners MR PROFESSOR and HEAD MISTRESS. Profitable's 2022 stud fee is €12,500.

More info here on the Darley website

4. Belardo (IRE)

Standing at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Kildare, Belardo was crowned European Champion 2YO following his win in the Gr.1 Dewhurst Stakes and he has made a fine start at stud, siring three first-crop Gr.2 and Gr.3 winners. A strike rate of 5% Group winners to runners from his 2018 crop: only Dubawi and Frankel – on 7% – have done better. His leading progeny include the Group winners ISABELLA GILES, LULLABY MOON & ELYSIUM. Belardo's 2022 stud fee is €9,000.

More info here on the Darley website

5. Cotai Glory (GB)

Standing at Tally-Ho, Cotai Glory has made a strong start at stud finishing 2021 as the leading first season sire for winners with 35 including the Gr.2 Prix Robert Papin winner ATOMIC FORCE, Group placed Pearl Glory and Eldrickjones, who was second in Royal Ascot's Coventry Stakes, Listed winner PURCIARETTA and stakes placed 2YOs including Dig Two who finished second in Royal Ascot's Listed Windsor Castle Stakes. Cotai Glory's 2022 stud fee is €8,500.

More info here on the Tally-Ho website